FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint is subject to dismissal pursuant to the first-filed rule, insofar as there is a substantially similar, prior pending action concerning the subject matter of this action in which full and adequate relief can be afforded.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Some or all of the claims alleged against Sentinel may be barred by the applicable statute of limitations and/or statute of repose, and/or by various equitable doctrines, including but not limited to, laches, unclean hands, waiver, and estoppel.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Sentinel Policies do not provide coverage for discrimination or humiliation that results in injury to the feelings or reputation of a natural person.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Sentinel at all times has acted promptly, reasonably and in good faith, and the existence or extent of coverage for the claims and allegations in the Underlying Actions is fairly debatable.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Even if coverage was afforded for certain claims at issue in the Underlying Actions (which Sentinel expressly denies), any defense or indemnity costs incurred must be equitably allocated between covered and uncovered claims.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Coverage for the Underlying Actions and/or relief sought therein is barred to the extent it is not allowed under applicable law and/or would violate public policy.

THIRTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

At this time, Sentinel lacks sufficient knowledge to form a belief as to the existence and availability of additional affirmative defenses due to the fact that no discovery has taken place. Accordingly, Sentinel reserves the right to amend its Answer to assert additional affirmative defenses that may become apparent through discovery or other investigation and as additional information becomes available.

WHEREFORE, Sentinel prays for judgment:

- (1) dismissing the Complaint with prejudice as to Sentinel;
